The exhibit "Art From Other Cultures" will be on display at the Linn-Benton Community College library through the month of January.

This exhibit features original paintings, sculpture, and ceramics from LBCC art instructor Gary Westford's collection from China, Japan, Thailand, Indonesia, Africa, Mexico, and New Guinea. Also on view is a series of thirteen calligraphic drawings by LBCC Librarian Brian Miyagishima featuring the words "Happy New Year" in different languages.

On display in LBCC's North Santiam Hall Gallery are the works of Clint Brown and Joey Azul through March 6. Brown is a retired OSU professor and is widely known for his beautiful drawings of the human figure. Azul is a young sculptor who creates interesting pieces using a variety of materials including wire, wax, and pigment.

On display in LBCC's South Santiam Hall Gallery through January 22 are works from students in LBCC graphic design and art photography programs. This show features completed class projects done by students in illustration, graphic design and introduction to photography classes.

These exhibits are free and open to the public. Gallery hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. For more information, contact the LBCC Gallery at 917-4247.
