LBCC Pacific Islander Club Hosts Luau

The LBCC Pacific Islanders Club will be hosting a Luau with island food and dancing on Saturday, Feb. 7, from 5 to 8:30 p.m. in the College Center Commons, 6500 Pacific Blvd. SW, Albany.

Guests will enjoy an island food menu of kalua pig (roast pork), teriyaki chicken, vegetable chop suey, rice, macaroni salad, tropical fruit salad, haupia (coconut pudding), coconut cake, fruit punch, tropical iced tea and coffee.

Entertainment will include dancers of all ages from Eugene's Hula Halau O Na Kaikuahine, Hula School of the Sisters, performing both ancient and modern hula dances.

Tickets are $3 for LBCC students with current student ID cards, and $12 for the public. Tickets can be purchased at the LBCC Student Life and Leadership office, the LBCC Diversity Achievement Center, and at Sid Stevens Jewelers in Albany.

This event is open to the public and is made possible by the joint efforts of the LBCC Pacific Islanders Club, LBCC Student Programming Board, LBCC Associated Student Government and the LBCC Diversity Achievement Center. For more information, contact Angie Klampe, club advisor, at 917-4790.
