LBCC Spring Choir Concert "If Music Be the Food of Love, Sing On"

Linn-Benton Community College Concert Choir and Re-Choired Element will perform "If Music Be the Food of Love, Sing On" on Thursday, June 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the First Assembly of God Church, 2817 Santiam Hwy SE, Albany.

LBCC music instructor James Reddan will conduct the performance, which will celebrate the art of song. The concert will feature classical to contemporary works including Three Madrigals (Emma Lou Diemer), Ain' a that Good News, Prayer of the Children (Kurt Bestor), Dravidian Dithyamb (India), Lux Aeterna, Tshotsholozza, Thou Whose Harmony Is the Music of the Spheres (Stephen Chatman) in addition to some surprise pieces.

This concert will also include the Premiere of the LBCC Alma Mater, composed by Rebecca Oswald of Eugene, Oregon. The concert will close with a mass choir performance of Davd Dikau's "If Music Be the Food of Love."

This concert is the last performance of the year, and is the Music Department's annual Scholarship Performance. All proceeds from this performance directly benefit students in the form of scholarships. We hope you will join the choirs in celebrating a landmark year of music making at LBCC.

Tickets are $6 non-reserved seating, and can be purchased at the Russell Tripp Performance Center Box Office, or by phone at 541-917-4531. Box office business hours are Tuesday through Friday, 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 2 p.m. Tickets are also available online at www.linnbenton.edu, powered by etix.com or can be purchased one hour prior to performance.
