The Turning Point Transitions program at Linn-Benton Community College will celebrate 20 years with an open house and celebration on Thursday, March 5.

All past graduates of Turning Point are welcome to attend the celebration held from 4 to 6 p.m. in the LBCC Library reading room. Friends and family of graduates are welcome to attend. Join us for refreshments and get in touch with your Turning Point classmates.

Turning Point is a free program designed for single parents, displaced homemakers, dislocated workers, their spouses and others who are experiencing major life transitions. If you are considering life's options, come and talk to those who have found direction through Turning Point.

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact LBCC Turning Point Transitions at 917-4923.
